EXHIBITION + DEMONSTRATION

Opportunities

The AORA 2027 Annual Conference offers a unique opportunity to put your brand, products and services in front of organics recycling professionals at Australia's only dedicated industry event of its kind.

As Australia's leading event for organics recycling, the AORA Annual Conference provides a dynamic forum for education, discussion, and networking across the sector.

Industry stakeholders will gain valuable insights from leading experts as they share their knowledge and experience, demonstrate cutting-edge equipment and technologies, and present innovative ideas driving sustainability and growth in organics recycling.

Why PARTICIPATE?

The AORA Annual Conference offers your business the opportunity to showcase your latest equipment and services to a highly targeted audience in a face-to-face environment.

Participating in the AORA Annual Conference will allow you to:

- Build new relationships and strengthen existing ones
- Generate brand exposure and raise your profile
- Demonstrate and test products and services
- Collect highly qualified leads and increase product sales
- Gain immediate feedback directly from your target market
- Launch a new product or service to a relevant, engaged audience
- Network with the right people and discuss business needs in a neutral environment
- Analyse competitor products and access first-hand market knowledge of industry developments

Quick Conference OVERVIEW
